

Lamar Harris Presents

SUPERHEROES OF BLACKNESS

2018's Hottest New Multimedia
Theater Production For the Culture!

IT IS THE YEAR 2609, BUT NOT MUCH HAS CHANGED....

In "Superheroes of Blackness", L Jay, an artificial intelligence being from the future, embarks on a quest to the past and our present to save the St. Louis urban community by assembling a task force of "superheroes" to tackle the issues that threaten the resilience and ultimate survival of St. Louis.

MULTIMEDIA THEATER EXPERIENCE

Lamar Harris' production combines digital animation with live theatrical performance accompanied by a live 8-piece band performing the hit play's original score.

16 BLACK SUPERHEROES FEATURED

Based on your favorite epic comic sagas, playwright Lois Hicks' cast of 16 black superheroes are brought to life in original fashions from today's most fashion futuristic costume designer, Nyla Coleman.

Lamar Harris Presents

"SUPERHEROES OF BLACKNESS"

WORKSHOPS AVAILABLE*

www.thelamarharris.com

WORKSHOP A: "SOS! SCORING OUR STORIES"

Conductor & Producer Lamar Harris facilitates this dynamic and experiential workshop that encourages participants to tell their stories, out loud and proud, and bring them to life with original score using music as an omniscient narrator.

WORKSHOP B: "#SUPERHEROGOALS"

Lamar Harris walks attendees through his creative process in conceptualizing and producing this year's hit stageplay, "Superheroes of Blackness" and the main character "LJay". Harris will share the process of finding support, sponsors and partners when endeavoring to bring #superherogoals and visions to life. Participants will be guided through the creative process to conceptualize original, memorable, and multi-dimensional characters.

In "Superheroes of Blackness", the future will be digitized and dramatized. . .
